

LCSHOF ANNOUNCES 2024 CLASS

The Limestone County Sports Hall of Fame Board of Directors is honored to announce its class for the 2024 Hall of Fame. The 2024 class is comprised of seven former athletes and two coaches. The induction ceremony for this year's class will be held June 8 at the Veterans Museum in Athens.

The 2024 inductees include the following:

Heidi Barnes – A two-sport star for Athens High School, Barnes helped the Lady Golden Eagles earn state championships in basketball and softball. Barnes scored over 1,000 points during her career in basketball and was named the 1999 Most Valuable Player in the state tournament. She was named 5A State Player of the Year in softball.

Hubert Chittam – The starting point guard on West Limestone High School's basketball team, Chittam's play was instrumental in leading the Wildcats to the 1956 state championship. Chittam led WLHS in free throw percentage, assists and steals. He was named to the All-State Tournament team.

Garner Ezell – Ezell amassed an 119-51 overall coaching record during his 15 seasons coaching football at Lexington, Cherokee and Athens High Schools. He was named 3A State Coach of the Year by the Alabama Sportswriters Association in 1984. His 79-34 career record at Athens High School is the highest winning percentage of any head football coach in AHS history.

Harlow Fikes – A multi-sport athlete at Athens High School, Fikes excelled in basketball, football and golf for the Golden Eagles. He earned numerous letters in the three sports. Fikes would play football at the University of North Alabama and was a four-year starter as the Lions punter. He set numerous school records and was a three-time All-Conference selection.

Richard Hendrix – Hendrix was a four-year starter for Athens High School where he was coached by his father and 2022 LCSHOF inductee Venard Hendrix. The younger Hendrix was a consensus High School All-American and played collegiately at the University of Alabama. He averaged 14.0 points per game and 9.0 rebounds per game during his career with the Crimson Tide. He would later be drafted by the Golden State Warriors in the second round of the 2008 NBA Draft.

Shea Moore – One of the most decorated athletes in Tanner High School history, Moore led the Lady Rattlers to the 2A State Championship in 1983. She was named MVP of the state tournament that season. While playing for the Lady Rattlers, Moore was named All-County, All-Area, All-State and was an honorable mention All-American selection by USA Today.

Jackie Moran – Moran was an All-State selection in basketball at West Limestone High School and helped lead the Wildcats to two Final Four appearances. He graduated from WLHS as the school's all-time leader in scoring (2,069 points) averaging 17.8 points per game in 116 games. He played collegiately at Martin Methodist College and Athens State College. He was named to the NAIA Southeast Independent All-Regional Team while at Athens State.

Trevor Washington – One of the best basketball players in Trinity High School history, Washington is the school's all-time leading scorer. He would average 32.6 points per game for Trinity High School. Washington took his prolific shooting talents to Alabama A&M University. He averaged 14.0 points per game and 8.2 rebounds per game during his career with the Bulldogs.

Chris Whitt – Whitt would lead the Tanner High boys' basketball program to unprecedented heights as head coach for the Rattlers. During his tenure, Tanner would claim two state championships, 13 Final Four appearances, 12 county championships and 21 area championships. His career record at Tanner High School was a remarkable 586-196.
